

Information for patients and healthcare professionals:

Patient card Emergency contact information
Emergency prescriber contact:
Office hours: _____
Out of office hours: _____
For complete information on the side effects of lenalidomide, patients should read the Package Leaflet and HCPs should read the Summary of Product Characteristics.
Information for Patients and Healthcare Professionals: Lenalidomide is structurally related to thalidomide and is expected to cause severe birth defects or death to an unborn baby, therefore: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>-Female patients of childbearing potential must always use effective contraception.</li><li>-Female patients of childbearing potential must have pregnancy tests every 4 weeks prior to each prescription to ensure that they are not pregnant, except in the case of confirmed tubal sterilisation.</li><li>-Male patients with pregnant partners or partners of childbearing potential not using effective contraception must always use condoms (even if man has had vasectomy).</li><li>-If a patient or partner of a patient suspects they are pregnant they must contact their prescriber immediately.</li><li>-You MUST tell your prescriber immediately if you experience any symptoms that causes concern.</li></ul>
Lenalidomide Information for Healthcare Professionals: <table border="1"><tr><td>Has the patient received counselling?</td><td>Yes/</td><td>No/</td></tr><tr><td>Childbearing potential assessment</td><td>WCBP/</td><td>WNCBP/</td></tr><tr><td>If the patient is a WCBP is she using effective contraception?</td><td>Yes/</td><td>No/</td></tr><tr><td>If the patient is male, is he using condoms, if required?</td><td>Yes/</td><td>No/</td></tr></table>			Has the patient received counselling?	Yes/	No/	Childbearing potential assessment	WCBP/	WNCBP/	If the patient is a WCBP is she using effective contraception?	Yes/	No/	If the patient is male, is he using condoms, if required?	Yes/	No/
Has the patient received counselling?	Yes/	No/
Childbearing potential assessment	WCBP/	WNCBP/
If the patient is a WCBP is she using effective contraception?	Yes/	No/
If the patient is male, is he using condoms, if required?	Yes/	No/
A completed Prescription Authorisation Form must accompany each prescription to confirm that the patient continues to use effective contraception (if required), in the case of a WCBP, is having a pregnancy test every 4 weeks before each prescription to ensure they are not pregnant.
Information for Healthcare Professionals: Prescription details This patient is receiving lenalidomide for the treatment of:														