

Bayer Notice: Supply of Qlaira

Bayer Limited regrets to advise that there will be a temporary supply interruption in the supply of Qlaira, the combined contraceptive pill.

The anticipated stock out date is currently mid-November 2021 but this may change if demand decreases or increases. Stock is expected to return to the market in Ireland in early Q2 2022. The return to supply will be notified through the HPRA and the IPU medicines shortages list.

We suggest that patients and users affected by the temporary shortage consult their treating physicians.

Bayer apologises for any inconvenience caused by this supply shortage.
